CAMP RULES

We believe that in order to achieve the goals of the teen camp, full cooperation of all participants is required. All campers must abide by the following rules:

1. All campers must participate in the scheduled daily activities.
2. Campers are not permitted to leave the territory of the camp without first obtaining permission from the camp director.
3. No visiting of opposite gender campers in sleeping units
4. There will be zero tolerance toward illegal/non-prescribed drugs, alcohol, tobacco use or possession of weapons. Such will lead to expulsion from the campground with no refund.
5. Campers clothe yourselves modestly, not provocatively or in any revealing way, otherwise you will be asked to change.
6. All camp quiet hours are from 11pm – 7am. Everyone should be in their assigned building.
7. Follow the rules of fire safely: Campfires are allowed in designated locations only. Fireworks are not allowed on campgrounds. Follow the rules of lake safety: always wear a lifejacket when in a boat.
8. Failure to complete assigned duties (such as kitchen clean up) will result in double duties.
9. Arguments, foul language, un-Christian like behavior, violation of rules are sufficient basis for expulsion.

DRESS CODE

- Be comfortable, but conservative.
- Shirts must be worn at all times unless swimming. All shirts must have sleeves. No tank tops.
- Shorts/Skirts must be approximately knee-length.
- Pants (for guys) and dresses/skirts (for girls) for services (evenings).

Campers may not wear apparel that is extremely tight fitting. Leggings may be worn with dresses and long t-shirts.

If in doubt about any particular article of clothing, we ask that it be left at home.

It is our desire that teen camp can be a place where young men and young women can escape the distractions during their stay at camp, a place where they can focus their eyes and hearts on their relationship with Jesus, and a place where they are not 'tempted' by the flesh. Styles of clothing can be a stumbling block for many youths. The primary concern is that we are dressed modestly. This applies to staff and campers alike.

The intent is to not bring attention to how one looks, but to highlight our walk of faith, love and pursuit of holiness. Therefore, campers and staff are required to adhere to the Camp Dress Code. Anyone in violation of this policy will be asked to change clothes or make the appropriate changes to render their clothing modest.

All campers, staff and guests are expected to respect God, each other and oneself at all times. Modesty includes appropriate behavior, language and conversation, and appropriate dress.

I hereby give permission to Midwest Teen Camp:

- To provide transportation to off-site areas or for medical attention as deemed appropriate by the camp director.
- To designate a Camp Physician, in case of an emergency if emergency contact cannot be reached, to secure proper treatment for, and/or order injections, hospitalization, anesthetics or surgery.
- I authorize the camp staff to take, display, and publish photographs, slides or videos for promotional and/or educational purposes.
- I acknowledge, understand, and accept that there are inherent risks associated with participation in this program and that doing so could result in injury. Midwest Teen Camp assumes no liability for injuries or damages from the results of participation. I acknowledge the fact that the Midwest Teen Camp does not provide accident insurance to its program participants. I certify that, to the best of my knowledge, I am/my child is physically fit and should this condition change at any time during the program I will notify the Camp Leaders of the Midwest Teen Camp. The camp leaders have my permission to call Emergency 911 and/or send me/my child to a hospital or emergency care facility, and the medical staff have my authorization to provide emergency treatment deemed necessary for the well-being of me/my child.
- Camp staff have the right to send a camper home who displays a pre-existing medical or behavioral condition not discussed prior to the start of camp and to CONDUCT A SEARCH OF PERSONAL BELONGINGS IF THERE IS REASONABLE SUSPICION THAT THE PARTICIPANT HAS SOMETHING IN HIS/HER POSSESSION THAT IS PROHIBITED (ex: drugs, alcohol, weapons). I agree to abide by all posted, written, or verbally communicated rules and regulations administered by the camp staff concerning this program.

I have read, understand, and accept the terms of condition.
